Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner apprehends that the Kalamassery police may arrest him on the allegation that he has committed a non-bailable offence. He apprehends that such arrest may be on the complaint filed by his wife.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, after taking instructions submits that the petitioner is not required to be arrested in connection with any crime by the Kalamassery police now. It is true that the wife of the petitioner had filed a complaint and the police had made an attempt to settle the disputes between the spouses. No crime has been registered. The petitioner shall not be arrested by the police on any allegation made by his wife about any incident till yesterday (24/7/2007), submits the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. The said submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor are taken note of and recorded. The apprehension of the petitioner is, in these circumstances, found to be without any merit.

4. This petition is accordingly dismissed.
